Bicycle Rental

Reykjavik is a great city to explore by bicycle, and it's never been easier to rent a bike in the city. Our shop is conveniently located near the whale watching boats at Reykjavik's Old Harbour. You have a wide range of bicycles to choose from – below you can see our two most popular types of bikes.

A complimentary bicycle helmet and lock are supplied with every rental as well as a map and explanation from our friendly staff. Tools and repair kit available upon request.

Children's bicycles, trailers, baby-seats and connecting bikes are available, as well as cargo trailers, luggage trailers and Ortlieb state-of-the-art panniers for touring.

TREK Navigator – 21 gears. Best bike for the city. Extremely comfortable riding position and saddle. All bikes come with locks, mud-guards and kick-stand. Rear luggage rack included when requested.

TREK 4300 – 24 gears. Great bike for touring. All bikes come with a lock, mud-guards and kick-stand. Rear luggage rack included when requested.

Private Tours

Private tours are perfect for flexibility for individuals, small and large groups of all kinds.

Reykjavik Bike Tours specialises in bicycle tours but its two founders also have over 37 years combined experience giving guided tours on foot, Segways and in vehicles large and small.

Some benefits of a private tour:

- Start the trip when you want
- Ride as far, as long and as fast as you want
- Choose the places and sights you want to include
- Choose your travel companions
- Children friendly – we have a child seat, hook-up trailer, "Trail Gator" extension from parent bike to child's bike, pedal along connecting bike, and children's helmets

Reykjavik Bike Tours has enjoyed top position on TripAdvisor.com since 2009

Reykjavik city walk: See places you would otherwise miss and learn about Reykjavik's history on foot with an enthusiastic professional local guide. On this easy walk, you'll also get a glimpse into Reykjavik's culture, architecture, nightlife, designer shops, museums and the daily life of a city dweller.

Private tours: Join us on a private tour, with or without bicycles, to see Gullfoss waterfall, Geysir geothermal area and Thingvellir NP, Vik village, Solheimajokull glacier, black sand beaches, Settlement Exhibition, Snæfellsnes peninsula NP, Westman Islands and more.

Segway tours: Segways are new in town in 2013. A trip on these amazing machines is guaranteed to leave a smile on your face.

Northern lights: Join us on a hunt for the northern lights in winter, from mid-September to mid-April. The northern lights are forecasted to be most spectacular this winter!

Classic Reykjavik

From the city centre to the greener parts of the city and picturesque views of the sea – you will take in some of Reykjavik's most important sights and stories on this tour.

The route usually includes but is not limited to the following places: City centre, Harpa Concert Hall, Parliament building, Ægisída – Reykjavik's south-facing beach, University of Iceland campus, Nordic house, Catholic cathedral, Old Harbour and lake.

2.5 hours (7 km bicycling). Easy ride.

ISK 4,500

15 May – 15 October, every day at 10 AM

WINTER SCHEDULE

We also do the Classic Reykjavik bike tour in winter – please check our website for details, or contact us!

Coast of Reykjavik

Experience Iceland's evening sun from a bicycle saddle. Join us on a trip along Reykjavik's coast, which is the perfect way to spend a summer's night in town.

The route usually includes but is not limited to the following places: Perlan area, Nautholsvik thermal beach, Seltjarnarnes peninsula and bird sanctuary, Grotta tidal island and lighthouse.

Most of the ride is on a dedicated paved and flat bicycle path. You'll pass some of Reykjavik's coastal mansions.

2.5 hours (18 km bicycling). Fairly easy ride.

ISK 4,500

15 June – 13 August

Monday, Tuesday, Saturday & Sunday at 7 PM

Special trip: Longest day of the year, 21 June at 10 PM

Golden Circle & Bike

See all three highlights of the south west of Iceland: Geysir geothermal area, Gullfoss waterfall and Thingvellir National Park – from a bike saddle.

We travel in a mini-bus with a bike trailer to Gullfoss waterfall, where you'll do your first ride of the day. We then visit Geysir geothermal area and Thingvellir National Park, which is on UNESCO's list of World Heritage Sites. We spend a good hour cycling in the national park before returning to Reykjavik.

8 hours (25 km bicycling in 1.5 hours).

Easy ride and support van follows.

ISK 17,000

5 June – 13 September, Wednesday and Friday at 1 PM

Minimum 4 participants – please contact us!

Westman Isles & Bike

Volcanic Westman Isles is an ideal place to bicycle. After a two-hour drive in the mini-bus and a 30-minute ferry ride to the main island Heimaey, we get on our bikes and pedal to view its main attractions such as, Pompeii of the North, puffin colonies in summer, Helgafell volcano, lavafield from 1973, half-collapsed houses due to the lava flow and more!

We bicycle mostly on paved surface, but for some of the views, we need to bicycle/walk up some hills.

12 hours (11 km bicycling on Westman Isles in 3 hours), fairly easy ride but some hills and trails.

ISK 23,000

6 June – 29 August, Thursday at 1 PM

Minimum 4 participants – please contact us!

No departure 1 August due to Bank Holiday weekend.

Open all summer & in winter by appointment!

Lake Challenge

The Lake Challenge is a new option in 2013. We travel in a mini-bus to Lake Pingvallavatn where we bicycle through Iceland's first national park and encircle the lake on a quiet secondary road. The lake is surrounded by volcanic formations, i.e. shield volcanoes, palagonite tuff mountains, lava fields and farmland.

6 hours (64 km bicycling in 4 hours).

Fairly challenging. Support van follows.

ISK 28,000

1 June – 14 September, Saturday at 1 PM

Minimum 2 participants – please contact us!

New tour!
